CRIANLARICH

Crianlarich is a small village of about 200 people located about 8 miles north of Loch Lomond. There are a few amenities in the village itself, including a pub / restaurant, post office, petrol station and village shop. If you think you might need anything over the weekend (inc. food, alcohol, etc.), you may be better to buy this in Glasgow before you leave.

CRIANLARICH HOSTEL

Address:

Station Road
Crianlarich
FK20 8QN

Phone: 01786 891400

Sleeping arrangements in the hostel will largely consist of dormitories with bedding provided. You should make sure to bring your own towel and any additional clothing you may think you might need for the activities we have arranged (inc. suitable shoes, casualwear, etc.). There is also usually an on-site warden in emergencies. Breakfasts, lunch and dinners will be provided. Please make sure we are aware of any dietary requirements, inc. food allergies and intolerances before Friday 17 February.

The hostel is across the road from the train station, and has nearby bus stops for intercity links to Glasgow if you are not taking the transport provided by us.

EMERGENCY CONTACTS

If you need to urgently contact the event organisers immediately before or during the weekend, please either contact Sarah Collins (mob. 0753444537) or David Green (mob. 07507934089).
